

HMSHost congratulates the following Best Airport Program winners in ARN's Best Concessions Competition for 2008.

Should this be 2007? This looked strange because 2008 just started.

Should this org be introduced by name before initials are used? making the traveler's day better.

Dallas-Ft. Worth International Airport
John F. Kennedy International Airport

Spell out Fort: Dallas-Fort Worth International Airport

Las Vegas McCarran International Airport
Newark Liberty International Airport

Technically, it's just McCarran International Airport, but I see nothing wrong with this way.

Orlando International Airport

Palm Beach International Airport

Portland International Airport

Ronald Reagan Washington National Airport

San Antonio International Airport

Seattle-Tacoma International Airport

Southwest Florida International Airport

HMSHost is a food, beverage and retail concessionaire at these award-winning airports.

CONGRATULATIONS TO ALL.

I would add an exclamation point here.
